

The Community of Practice on Community Engagement conducted a series of pre-crisis information mapping surveys and consultations in 10 selected barangays in Metro Manila from May to July 2017. The survey was conducted to understand and validate information on the vulnerabilities, capacities and preferences on the type of relief and humanitarian assistance that the community may need should a 7.2 magnitude earthquake hit Manila.

Communities expect support from

Communities' information needs

Communities' information sources

Accountability mechanisms

Consultation and Feedback channels

