South Sudan Teachers’ Code of Conduct for Emergency Situations

Introduction
This Teachers’ Code of Conduct is designed to complement the Southern Sudan Teachers’ Professional Code of Conduct (2008). It is intended for use in emergency situations, where teachers might not be trained on the full Teacher Code of Conduct and where there are particular protection and safety concerns that teachers must be aware of.

The Teachers’ Code of Conduct for Emergency Situations is designed to lay out the responsibilities of teachers in emergency situations and the relationship between teachers, learners, and the community during times of crisis and beyond. It also describes how teachers can support each other during emergency situations so that they can cope and contribute to the post-emergency recovery.

In this document, ‘teacher’ refers to any adult who is supervising learning in a classroom or temporary learning space. Often in emergency situations this might include formally trained government teachers or untrained trusted volunteers from the community.

Teachers have a very important role to play during emergency situations; this Code of Conduct is designed to support teachers in their work to continue providing protective education to the children of South Sudan during emergencies because they are our future.

Responsibilities

In the classroom, teachers...

- Must be present and on time for class. Any absence should be authorised and communicated to learners in advance. A class register should be taken.
- Must be prepared to teach and must not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- Must promote a protective and positive learning environment however possible, being aware of risks in the area and respond or report security dangers.
- Should maintain political neutrality and promote peace and social responsibility.
- Are role models and should demonstrate good behaviour such as respect for others, hard work, punctuality, responsibility and team work.
- Display a basic competence in educational methods and the subjects to be taught, using lesson plans or schemes of work if possible.
- Provide basic information about emergency risks and life skills (e.g., landmine awareness, hand washing, disaster preparedness) and discuss children’s fears openly.

Teachers must do no harm...

- Respect learners’ rights and dignity without discrimination according to gender, tribe, language, religion, age or ability.
- Do not use any actions or language that is physically or psychologically violent, which includes sexual harassment.

A teacher should provide care and support...

- Teachers must wherever possible try to protect themselves and learners from dangers and make sure that emergencies do not interfere with learning or risk health and safety.
- Provide a learning environment where there is trust and where everyone is respected.
- Promote high expectations of learners and help each student to reach his/her potential even in difficult circumstances.
- Listen to and observe learners who have experienced stressful events and provide support.
- Where necessary, refer the learner to other colleagues or supportive community members, respecting the privacy and wishes of the child.

A teacher should use appropriate discipline...

- No physical punishment, shaming or humiliation (such as caning, making children kneel down, pinching the ears of children, scratching, or name calling) is permitted. In emergency situations learners are already exposed to physical risks and stress outside the classroom – school must be a safe place to be.
- Teachers try to understand inappropriate behaviour and provide guidance and support to address the cause of the problem.
Relationships

Teacher – Learner
- Teachers encourage both boys and girls to participate fully in all learning opportunities.
- Teachers should try to include children who might find it difficult to attend classes during emergencies – girls, children with disabilities or other vulnerable groups.
- Teachers shall never use physical, verbal, psychological or sexual violence against any learners.
- Teachers must never have any kind of sexual relationship with a learner. Both forced and agreed sexual relations are illegal and abusive. See right for mandatory penalties.

Teacher – Community
- Teachers encourage parents to support and participate in their children’s learning, both boys and girls.
- Teachers recognise the importance of family and community involvement in school.
- Teachers support and promote a positive image of the school within the community.

Teacher – Teacher
- Teachers respect each other’s rights and dignity without discrimination according to gender, tribe, language, religion, age or ability.
- In emergencies, even experienced teachers might find it difficult to cope with the crisis and the new challenges faced. Teachers can discuss challenges and stressful experiences, and support each other to set goals and address problems one at a time.

---

Signatures of commitment

Teacher name: ..........................................................

Signature: ..........................................................

Headteacher name: ..........................................................

Signature: ..........................................................

Chair of the PTA name: ..........................................................

Signature: ..........................................................

Minister of Education: H.E. Joseph Ukel Abango

Signature: ..........................................................