

The Federally Administered Tribal Area (FATA) was a semi-autonomous tribal region in northwestern Pakistan, consisting of seven tribal agencies (districts) and six frontier regions, until being merged with neighboring province Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KPK) in 2018. The region is now called Tribal Districts. It borders Balochistan to the south, and Afghanistan's provinces of Kunar, Nangarhar, Paktia, Khost and Paktika to the west and north.
